

LEGAL BATTLE RAGES ACROSS AMERICA

Pennsylvania

Berg v. Obama - This case began in the lower courts on August 21, 2008 and is currently pending in the U.S. Supreme Court. It has been denied several times but is now set for conference on January 9, 2009.

Berg alleges that Obama was born in Kenya. He's got audio recordings and signed affidavits.

HAVE YOU HEARD?

Since way before the election, Obama's constitutional eligibility has been questioned. The main stream media have all across the board ignored this issue. When they have covered it, they've painted it as being lunatic, fringe, whack-job type rumors. This is NOT about rumors or conspiracies. This is a legitimate constitutional question about Obama's eligibility to serve as President of the United States.

Secretaries of State from every state are desperately trying to pass the buck and say that it is not their responsibility to verify a candidate's qualifications. Barack Hussein Obama has flat out refused to provide the proper documentation to prove that he meets the Constitutional qualifications. Reports say that he's spent some $800,000 on legal defense to avoid showing a $12 birth certificate.

Legitimate issues regarding our constitution have been raised all the way to the United States Supreme Court several times and have been completely ignored. If America knew about all the issues surrounding his eligibility, things would be different. However, the strong arm of the main stream media has done their best to silence these issues and present them as lunatic fringe allegations. As John Bingham, the founder of the 14th Amendment, stated,

"May God forbid that the future historian shall record of this day's proceedings, that by reason of the failure of the legislative power of the people to triumph over the usurpations of an apostate President..."

Please spread this list of legal actions that are taking place across our country. Print it out. Pass it out. Talk about it. Let people know.

TWO BASIC ISSUES:

Was he 'natural born'?

Barack Hussein Obama's father was in fact a British citizen. This gave Obama dual citizenship at birth. Until recently, dual citizenship has always been frowned upon and even considered immoral at times. Dual allegiance is what the framers of the Constitution were trying to protect our country from. A natural born citizen has always been considered one that was born on American soil by two American citizens. Obama does not satisfy that requirement. The meaning of 'natural born' is clearly spelled out in other writings well known around the time the Constitution was ratified. Natural born status is given to someone who's birth naturally (by the gifts of nature) gives them citizenship. Many people are turning to the 14th Amendment to prove he is a natural born citizen. A loose interpretation of the 14th may give someone citizenship, but they are still not considered natural born because it was a man made law that altered the natural citizenship status the person would have had at birth. Even if that was used, the question remains:

Where was he born?

Back in 1961, a person could easily obtain a certification of live birth even though they were born from another country. A copy of his ORIGINAL 1961 birth certificate would indicate if that was the case concerning his birth. All hospitals in the Hawaii area where Obama was supposedly born have denied that his mother was a patient there. Even a neighbor of his alleged place of residence at the time of birth cannot recall a young white woman giving birth to a black baby in 1961. There are relatives that have claimed he was born in Mombassa, Kenya. There's even an audio recording of his grandmother stating that she was present in Kenya at Obama's birth. The US Ambassador to Kenya has also confirmed that it is well known that Obama was born in Kenya. Obama's stubborn refusal to show his qualifications is a clear indication of guilt on his behalf. Hawaiian law at that time allowed for someone born from another country to obtain a birth certificate from Hawaii. If Obama was clearly born on American soil, then why is he hiding such a basic document?
